

ADDENDUM TO CAPE TOWN EISTEDDFOD DANCE SYLLABUS FOR 2018 (have left this separate to the syllabus so that teachers who did not enter last year may take note).

STAGEBRANCH SECTION ONLY:

1. Groups

- a. M316 will be divided as follows: 17-19 Amateur and 17-19 Students (please mark clearly on entry form whether Amateur or Student section).
 - b. M319 will be divided as follows: 20 & over Amateur and 20 & over Students (please mark clearly on entry form whether Amateur or Student section).
 - c. There will be 3 categories for the group section (13 & over groups only), 1 Jazz, 2 Contemporary/Lyrical and 3. Musical Theatre (please mark clearly on entry form).
2. Studio set dance character – to have a 1 minute stipulation
 3. Straight own Choice - may not use a prop (excluding a chair)
 4. Dress code (for sets) – unitard, leotard, matching skirt of same fabric – short single layer. No dresses, unless stipulated by choreographer.

BALLET AND STAGEBRANCH SECTIONS:

1. Groups – if 10 – 14 dancers in a group, one of the dancers may be 1 year older than age category and / or 1 status up. If there are 15 or more dancers in a groups, then above rule would apply to 2 dancers ie. If you have an 11-12 pre-amateur group comprising of 10 – 14 dancers, one of the dancers may be 13 and/or amateur and the group will be entered as an 11-12 pre-amateur group.
2. All groups have got to be comprised of 100% dancers from entering studio. If a group comprises of dancers from another studio, they have got to enter under amalgamated groups. This is the only time that an entrant will be allowed to dance in 2 groups in the same group section. Eg. 17-19 Amateur group (studio), 17-19 Amalgamated group. MUST BE MARKED CLEARLY ON ENTRY FORM.
3. Teachers may enter a 5 or 6 year old in the 7 years Straight set (Modern) or 7 years Classical set (Ballet) – they must however, still do the character / demi-character in their own age group.

The R500-00 Cape Town Eisteddfod Award to the teacher who is the choreographer of the best group in the finals (this will apply to all sections of this award)
